

Speaker's Biosketch

ICoLA 2024

Sang-Guk Lee (Yonsei University, Republic of Korea)

Sang-Guk Lee, MD, PhD, is a Professor of Laboratory Medicine and a director of clinical chemistry laboratory, at the Severance Hospital, Yonsei University College of Medicine, Seoul, Korea. He is the Director of International Affairs of Korean Society of Clinical Chemistry. He has worked on the lipid standardization for a long time cooperating with US CDC and IFCC (International Federation of Clinical Chemistry). His research interests are in clinical metabolomics, clinical mass spectrometry, metabolic disorders and laboratory results standardization. He is currently focusing on the research to find new metabolite biomarkers of various diseases and evaluate metabolic mechanism for disease development.